H. Poliak, Schools Supt. Dwight Twist, guest speaker Dr. Arthur F. More than 300 Palm Springs teachers, school administrators, civic leaders and resort area businessmen attended the association's Riviera Hotel dinner party.

Presidential Fact-Finding Board Called

To Help Achieve Settlement of Steel Dispute

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower reconvened his special fact-finding board today to help achieve a settlement of the steel dispute and prevent renewal of the strike.

Under provisions of the Taft-Hartley Law, the board will participate in union-management talks for a 60-day period dating from Nov. 7, when the Supreme Court upheld the injunction sending steelworkers back to their jobs.

THERE WERE NO immediate plans for board members to meet but federal mediators said they would be summoned to assist in seeking a peaceful solution to the steel dispute in the near future. At the end of the 60 days, the fact finders will report to the President on what transpired at the negotiations and on the final settlement offer made by the industry.

THE BOARD WILL work with Joseph F. Finnegan, chairman of the Federal Negotiation and Conciliation service who will be responsible for the renewed negotiations. Finnegan has reported that talks will not begin for about two weeks, giving industry an opportunity to get back into production.

Some labor leaders are pessimistic about the chances of a settlement during the 80-day cooling off period provided by the injunction. Among them is AFL-CIO President George Meany, who has warned organized labor to gird itself for "the battle that seems certain to begin again" when the period expires.

AFTER THE fact-finding board reports to the President, 20 days will remain until the injunction expires on Jan. 26. During that interval the National Labor Relations Board will submit management's final offer to a steelworkers election provided a settlement has not already been reached.

It was reported from Pittsburgh today that the pace of steel production is steadily being stepped up, and that the industry should hit 60 per cent of capacity by week's end. Most mills reported they were moving faster toward their peak than expected.

VILLAGE MATRON GETS PURPLE HEART FOR SLAIN SON

A Palm Springs woman yesterday received the Military Order of the Purple Heart as a posthumous award for her son, a Los Angeles police officer killed in the line of duty.

Mrs. Julia Montineri accepted the medal for her son, Officer Thomas Scebbi, 24, who was fatally wounded when he attempted to disarm a holdup suspect.

Los Angeles Police Chief William H. Parker and Sheriff Peter J. Pritchett made the presentations in ceremonies conducted by the Los Angeles City Council. Nine of the awards presented to 12 police officers and six sheriff's deputies were posthumous.

Village Joins In Observation Of Veterans Day

Palm Springs today joined with other communities across the country today in services to honor the country's war dead on Veterans Day.

Starting with a parade down Palm Canyon Drive, the Palm Springs High School band played the "Star Spangled Banner" and members of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Disabled American Veterans raised the flag on the flagpole in the Plaza.

VICE MAYOR Ted McKinney read the mayor's proclamation for Veterans Day and retired Admiral Dan Wagner gave a short address in which he said that "America must remain ready to defend itself, but we must also try to solve international problems through bargaining."

The keynote address was given by Al Patane, past commander of the American Legion, who said "though we seek the formula for co-existence, together with a solution to our problems, we must be ever watchful of the honor of our country and ourselves, in order that we shall move forward, in the sight of God, as a strong nation in a peaceful world."

IN WASHINGTON, traditional Veterans Day ceremonies were held at Arlington National Cemetery. Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Army chief of staff, led the observance as President Eisenhower's personal representative, placing the President's wreath at the Tomb of the Unknowns.

MILLIONS OF SCHOOL children had a holiday as did the nation's mailmen who made no deliveries today. Most other federal, state and municipal employees were also given the day off. Courts and most banks and public buildings were closed but grain and stock markets around the country were open. Many daily newspapers around the country suspended publication for the day.

Bludgeoned Woman Was Film Aide

L.A. Physicist Makes Positive Identification

Riverside County sheriff's officers, armed with a positive identification of the victim of a bludgeon killer, today sought "any kind of a lead" that might lead to the arrest of her slayer.

Capt. Ed Brown, of the Sheriff's Banning substation, admitted that his investigation is "pretty well stumped right now."

DR. FRANK A. BACK, a Hollywood physicist who owns Zoomar Company, an optical manufacturing firm, last night positively identified the battered woman as Lillian Lenorak, 42, also of Hollywood.

The physicist, who maintains a home in Palm Springs at 1111 Paseo El Mirador, said he brought the Hollywood film technician to the resort city just a few hours before her death Saturday.

After Dr. Back was shown the body at Wiegels and Son Mortuary, almost without hesitation he said: "That's Lillian. There is no doubt about it. . . I hope they find the person who did this to her."

SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES then took Dr. Back to Palm Springs Police Station where they started a grueling, five-and-a-half hour questioning and re-questioning of the woman's escort.

He told the officers that he had driven the woman from her Hollywood apartment at 5431 Flemish Lane, Hollywood to Palm Springs about 2:30 p.m., Saturday. He said they arrived here about 5:30 and went directly to his home here.

"Shortly after arriving at the house, we decided to go see the new Riviera hotel, and Lillian changed her clothes (and then he indicated that she put on the dress which she was found dead in) and we left in the car," said Back.

"WE HAD BARELY gotten started before we got into an argument over a key to my house which she wanted, and I told her that I did not think she was responsible, and she became furious over my remark and started to jump from the moving car," he related.

"I stopped the car on Paseo El Mirador near the intersection of Indian Avenue, and she jumped out. That was the last time I saw her."

Dr. Back said that he then returned to his home and waited "several hours" for her to return. When she didn't come back, he packed up her clothes, put a note on the front door telling her that he was taking them back to her Hollywood apartment, and returned to his residence at 1586 Crossroads of the World, Hollywood.

Station Worker Commits Suicide

Eugene R. Burgeron, 30, unemployed service station operator, was found lying on his living room floor at 67-206 Mission Drive at noon today with a gunshot wound in his right temple.

Deputies said he committed suicide.

A small .22 caliber pistol lay near his open right hand. Keys to his home were also near the body.

He had unsuccessfully attempted suicide Tuesday by taking "a home brew concoction" of ammonia and mercuric iodine, according to close friends who said he was despondent over personnel problems.

In Central Africa

Pygmies Aiding Giants in Battle

BRUSSELS, Belgium—(UPI)—Ruanda pygmies using poison blowguns have joined the giant Watusi warriors in a battle with Bahutus tribesmen in the Belgian trusteeship territories in Africa, reports reaching Brussels said today.

The Ministry of Colonies said it had received reports that more than 200 persons had been killed in savage fighting carried out with ancient spears and bows and arrows and now with blowguns in the mountainous territory in Central Africa.

THE SEVEN-FOOT-tall Watusis apparently were losing out in the battles against the more numerous Bahutus, long their serfs, and called on the four-foot high pygmies to help them out.

The Bahutus outnumber the Watusis 4,000,000 to 300,000. Reports said most of the dead were Watusi warriors and that so far the rampant Bahutus have spared women and children. The Bahutus went on the war path because they feared Belgium's plans for independence would perpetuate Watusi domination.

A BATTALION of about 600 Colonial Army (Force Publique) troops sent in from the adjoining Belgian Congo has so far been unable to separate the warring tribes.

The battalion split up into 24 patrols but was able to make little contact with the fighting because of the mountainous terrain and the barely perceptible jungle trails along which the tribesmen travel.

FCC to Check Full Extent of Policing Powers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) set in motion today a sweeping new investigation which could bring a crackdown on rigged TV quiz shows, offensive commercials and other broadcast practices "contrary to the public interest."

The commission will survey just what powers it has to police radio and TV programming. It said Tuesday the inquiry might lead to proposals for new legislation by Congress.

THE FCC ALSO will take a hard new look at its policies on granting radio and television station licenses to make sure they are "adequate in view of the changed and changing conditions in the broadcast industry."

The commission said this phase of the investigation would involve development of "more detailed and precise standards for the guidance of broadcasters in the exercise of their responsibility."

THE AGENCY will hire additional staff members and otherwise expedite the inquiry, which

'DEDICATION KEY TO GOOD TEACHER'

A ranking executive of the California Teachers Association last night told Palm Springs teachers that they have an uncommonly great responsibility in dedicating themselves to a supposedly commonplace profession.

Dr. Arthur F. Corey, executive secretary of the state association, cautioned the more than 150 faculty members of the Palm Springs school district not to overlook the intrinsic greatness of their "commonplace" roles in society.

"THE GOOD TEACHER is a creative artist," Dr. Corey declared, "and I wish that never again would I hear a teacher say 'I am just a teacher.'"

Dr. Corey directed his remarks to more than 300 teachers, school administrators, civic leaders and area businessmen gathered at the

Animal Protective League to Meet Next Monday

Animal Protective League of Palm Springs will hold its annual business meeting at 7:45 p. m., Monday, Nov. 16, in the Katherine Finchley school cafeteria.

New directors will be elected, and a proposed amendment to the by-laws considered, according to Eugenia H. Grow, president.

League officials said that only paid-up members will be eligible to vote, and deadline for payment of dues is today.

Algerians Riot Against De Gaulle

ALGIERS (UPI) — French settlers extremists marched through Algiers today shouting abuse against President Charles de Gaulle and his government.

Let Him Eat Cake

Mitchell Eats Hat On Jobless Bet

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell announced today that unemployment rose to 3,270,000 in October and promptly ate his "hat" in public.

Mitchell, standing in front of the Labor Department, nibbled on a slice of mocha cake made in the shape of a fedora. He promised last April to eat his hat if the number of people out of work exceeded the three million mark in October.

HE BLAMED THE higher than predicted unemployment figure on the steel strike rather than weakness in the economy.

"If there had been no steel strike," Mitchell said, "unemployment would be well below three million and employment would have risen high above the 67 million mark."

MOSCOW (UPI) — A Soviet audience saw its first modern American movie Tuesday night and gave a warm greeting to "Marty," a film that shows not all Americans lead lives of luxury.

At the same time, the Soviet film "The Cranes Are Flying," which includes a mild criticism of communism, was given its American premiere in Washington to prolonged applause.

Both premieres marked the start of a ten-film motion picture exchange program between the two governments.

Steinberg On Hand for Meet Of Top Demos

Harriman Meets Symington at L. A. Breakfast Session

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Two Democratic friends crossed paths briefly today and then went on their separate ways to drum up interest for their party in next year's presidential elections.

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), a hopeful in the quest for the Democratic presidential nomination, and non-candidate former New York Gov. Averell Harriman said their party "obviously" will win the Presidential election next year.

ON HAND FOR THE festivities was Lionel Steinberg of Palm Springs, a member of the California Democratic State Central Committee.

Steinberg indicated that the pair were apparently "more interested" in furthering the party's aspirations than engaging in hand-to-hand combat on the political situation.

SYMINGTON, HERE on a week-long pulse feeling tour of the populous Southern California, attended a breakfast for Harriman given by the Democratic State Central committee and then went his separate way to give talks in nearby areas, including Santa Barbara and Redlands.

Harriman addressed a luncheon meeting of Town Hall, warning in a prepared statement that Premier Nikita Khrushchev represents the "emergence of a Soviet leader as a politician."

"POLITICIAN KHRUSHCHEV is now promising his public the things they crave the most," said Harriman. "First, relief from the fear of war. Another move is permitting the Russian people to see the United States in a more favorable light."

"Lastly, we see politician Khrushchev in his tour through Siberia showing a keen interest in the people's desire for more consumer goods."

SAUND'LL GO SLOW —BUT HE'S RARING TO HIT ROAD AGAIN

Congressman D. S. Saund today said he's ready to hit the road around and about his 29th Congressional District again, following his release from the March Air Force Base hospital.

But the convalescing Congressman added that his pace will be "a bit more leisurely" than the furious, fast-wheeling pace that landed him in the hospital with a case of "sheer physical exhaustion."

Saund noted that from Oct. 1 to Oct. 27 he attended more than 50 meetings and delivered nearly that many speeches from one end of the district to the other. He was hospitalized the night of Oct. 27.

"The result of this pace was that I was flat on my back when Sen. John F. Kennedy came to Riverside to speak at a testimonial dinner in my behalf," Saund quipped.

CARPENTER WARNS COUNTY ON 'CITIZEN'S COMMITTEE'

Samuel L. Carpenter, Jr., of Rancho Mirage warned the Board of Supervisors this week against treating as otherwise than anonymous a communication from "The Citizens Committee for Home Safety," an organization he charged was formed to influence the board to discontinue operation of the Desert Air Park airport at Palm Desert.

Carpenter termed the asserted movement "a retaliation against Gogerty because he opposed establishment of the junior college on a site in the path of air travel from the airport."

He remarked that the Board of Education, and state and federal aeronautical authorities have also objected to the proposed site because of the existing air lanes, as has the county airport commission.

DHS Group Vetoes Sale Of Its Hall

Only Alternative For Park Board Is Condemnation

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Directors of the Desert Hot Springs Park and Recreation District today faced an apparent dead end in their efforts to purchase the Improvement Association Hall for a community recreation building.

All but two of the association directors have voted not to sell the association's "Town Hall" to the park and recreation district, leaving the district only one alternative — condemnation — if it is determined to secure the building.

ACTION ON THE district's purchase offer followed a report to association officials by Evelyn Knudsen, who was previously appointed chairman of a special fact-finding committee designated to investigate reasons why the district should purchase the hall.

Mrs. Knudsen reported that the hall stands in the midst of a seven-acre site owned by the park district and, she said it would "be better for the town" if the district owned the building too.

The question was brought to a vote by Dr. James Compton, who moved for refusal to sell.

CABOT YERXA cast the only dissenting vote and Sadie Dehner refused to vote because she felt the entire membership should be present for balloting before a vote is called.

Mrs. Knudsen has now been appointed to represent the association at a special Park and Recreation District board meeting scheduled for Nov. 24.

John Collier, district representative of the National Recreation Association, will confer with park board members and local civic and religious leaders to discuss long-range recreational planning for the community.

NEWEST 'BURGLARY' HERE IS MYSTERY TO CITY COUNCIL

Already plagued by a rash of major and minor burglaries and thefts, Palm Springs officials this week scratched their collective heads over the latest missing item: a plaque fixed in rock at the corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Andreas Road.

"What happened to that plaque," asked Council member Ruth Hardy at the council's regular session.

No one seemed to recall having noted it at all recently but the city's Public Works Department vowed a thorough search in an attempt to recover the plaque. The plaque was dedicated to the memory of C. C. Neel, an early day nursery man here.

Billboard Free Road Amazes Board

Investigation Ordered to Find Reason for Status

The Board of Supervisors was startled this week by a statement by Supervisor George Berkey that there is actually a six-mile stretch of highway in the county with nary a billboard. He said he had observed the phenomenon in his travel between the desert and the county seat of Riverside.

The area lies along Highway 60 between its junction with Highway 79 and its junction with the old Jackrabbit trail.

AT BERKEY'S suggestion the supervisors asked the planning director to check on the location and report to the board next Monday, Nov. 16, as to what can be done to retain the bill boardless status.

"I think it is a matter of zoning," said Berkey.

Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain said he would favor immediate banning of billboards in the area, but County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan said that he has read the San Bernardino County billboard-banning ordinance many times, carefully, backward and forward, and had come to the conclusion he could not recommend a similar law for Riverside County.

"THE LEGISLATURE," said Sullivan, "says the determination is up to them."

Constance Holland, desert ceramic artist, returned last week from La Jolla where she spent a few days of business and pleasure.

Among the weekend guests at Nelson's Motel were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Earnest of La Mesa, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McMahon and daughter from Long Beach, N. D. Shaefer and B. O. Brown of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Blair from McMillville, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Verney of Douglas, Ariz., Pete O. Schaefer from Hermosa Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Harris from Riverside.

Last weekend Mrs. Pearl Miller, Rancho Mirage aquatic coach, and her granddaughter, Carol Wartes, were in San Diego visiting with Carol's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Jack Wartes (Mrs. Miller's daughter). Rev. Wartes is stationed at the Naval Hospital and recently returned from extended sea duty.

Carol is spending the winter with her grandmother.

Mrs. Betty Allardice flew in from her home in Vancouver, B.C., last week to spend a few weeks with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck barbee.

CAMERON CENTER'S "Miss Lucky Parker," pretty Powers model Patti O'Quinn, uses a telescope to aid "Lucky Parker" contest's mystery photographer at the Golden Mile merchandising mart. Licenses lensed by the photog at Cameron Center and reproduced in the Desert Sun bring the owners a potted palm prize. Oilman George Cameron, Jr., owner-operator of the shopping center, created the contest as a device to put the palms back in Palm Springs. "Lucky Parkers" may call for their prize at Cameron Center's offices at 801 Random Drive. Latest winners will be announced in tomorrow's Sun. (Gayle Studio Photo).

Altman-La Vove Troth Plighted

By ELLEN SAUNDERS
Mrs. Jennie Frank has just announced the engagement of her niece, Mrs. Augusta La Vove to Mr. Morris Altman. The marriage will take place on Nov. 22, with Rabbi Isaac Bloch officiating. Both Mrs. La Vove and Mr. Altman are active in the civic and social life of this community.
Michael Fox and Marjorie Bubar of Los Angeles, who own weekend homes in Sky Valley, visited with the William DeLong family on Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Fuller of Los Angeles (she's western manager for Toys and Novelties Publishing Co.) stopped off on Monday for a visit with Mrs. Aaron M. Eaton. Mrs. Fuller enjoyed her first visit to this town and the opportunity she had to tour the Angel View Crippled Children's Clinic.

A number of Angelenos were in town this past weekend for the Penny Carnival. Among those staying at the Lorraine Apartments were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Feld and son, Alan, and Mrs. Feld's sister and brother-in-law, the Morton Lubins, their daughter, Janice, and son, Louis.

The newest business in town is Louie Catalano's barber shop. In the business for more than 30 years he learned his trade in Italy, owned shops in Niagara Falls and for the past two years has been in Palm Springs. He is the father of Raymond Catalano, young singer and accordionist.

Hugh Green, who has been operating real estate offices in Downey and Big Bear for the past few months, is back in town and says it's good to be with old friends again. Hugh will be employed in the Seventh Street Office of the Realty Co. of America.

The Ben Cohens of Montreal, Canada, who are guests at the Atlas-Hi Lodge like Desert Hot Springs so much that they not only have lengthened their one week stay to three but arranged for their daughter, Debbie, and granddaughter, Celia, to fly here from Montreal. Other guests at the Lodge who have returned for their second and third visits this winter include Mr. and Mrs. Nate Reinhardt of Los Angeles, the A. J. Sardis of Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hartnett of Gardena, and the H. P. Elowitz of Whittier.

Weekend guests at Karula's Motel included Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon of Hollywood. He is chief camera man at Twentieth Century Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson (they manage the Stella Apartments) spent several days in Pomona and Seal Beach last week. In Pomona they were the guests of Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. Selma Edwards. Later they visited the Seal Beach home of Mrs. Wilson's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thomas.

Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Markell reopened their desert home on Thursday. He will return to Pasadena after a few days rest but Mrs. Markell plans to be here for a couple of weeks. On Saturday their son and daughter-in-law, the James Markells and their two children, Chris and Jeffrey motored up from Temple City for a week's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Bertram spent last weekend in Los Angeles where they attended several parties given in honor of their granddaughter, Miss Karen Bertram, whose marriage to Al Santez will take place later this month.

Mrs. Jane Inge of B-Bar-H Ranch entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clack and son, Gordon, and Mrs. Emily Allis and son, Joe, of Downey over the weekend. Mrs. Allis, who has just moved to California from Buffalo, N. Y., will spend two weeks with Mrs. Inge.

Good news for asthmatics

Specialist's discovery now makes it possible for bronchial asthma sufferers to quickly relieve choking, coughing, gasping spasms and do it without use of internal drugs or painful injections. So safe you can get Dr. Guld's Green Mountain in either cigarette or compound form without prescription. Ask your druggist for it.

YUCCA VALLEY IS RETIREMENT SITE

YUCCA VALLEY — Clarence O. Cron, P.O. Box 732, Yucca Valley, retired Oct. 31 from Firestone Tire & Rubber Company of California and now receives the pension that the firm pays each eligible employee at age 65 in accordance with the policies in effect at the big rubber manufacturing plant in Los Angeles.

Though he and his wife, Laura, whom he married in 1921, now are residents of Yucca Valley, Cron for a long time lived in the southeast area until the time was at hand for him to retire. Two of his three children are Firestone employees.

HOWARD CRON, Lynwood, is active at the plant, while Bob Cron is on leave from the firm to study for the ministry. Cron's third child is now Mrs. Philip (Betty Jo) Carlson, Downey. Mr. Cron's three children have presented him with a total of eight grandchildren.

A native of Galena, Mo., Cron was a railroad worker until he entered the rubber industry in 1924 in Denver, Colo. Four years later he moved west with his wife and family and found a spot in the new Firestone plant on the West Coast which had just begun production.

HIS RECORD reveals that he served in the Marines during World War I, and saw 11 months duty in France, after some action in Cuba he got into "right out of boot training," he says.

Both Cron and his wife are avid fishing enthusiasts. It is for this reason that they intend to get a trailer so that this enjoyment will not be hindered any more than is necessary. Cron claims his childhood home in the Ozarks started this interest.

Still, the Crons will maintain their new home in the clear desert air of Yucca Valley as their permanent residence.

Law in Action

Church and State Are Separated

Our nation came into being soon after the religious upheavals in Europe. Hence our constitution says:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof . . ."

OUR NATION is not against religion, but we have a long standing policy that citizens can hold their own beliefs without government meddling.

Yet our government does give some aid to religion as when we exempt schools and colleges, religious or not, from taxes.

But, in interpreting the constitution, the courts have ruled against any law that would single out one religion above the others.

WHERE THERE is no such favoritism, the courts have upheld laws which, for example, allowed bus service at the taxpayers' expense for all school children, including pupils in religious schools.

The separation of church and state came slowly, and still offers problems. In one state or another questions still persist as to whether teachers may read the Bible or pray in class, or under what conditions the schools may excuse students to attend religious exercises.

THE 1787 ORDINANCE for the Northwest and Southwest territories encouraged religion. Early government land grants supported schools, then mostly religious. And it was not until 1869 that Congress limited land grants for education to "state universities" and "common schools."

In 1798 President Washington sent missionaries to Indian tribes as did other presidents in their turn. Not until 1897 did Congress quit subsidizing Indian missions.

The federal government still keeps chaplains in Congress, the Armed Forces, and on certain government lands. The G. I. Bill sent veterans to religious schools, and federal funds aid many hospitals, religious or otherwise.

Meeting May Aid in Solving Jewelry Thefts

Detective Lt. Robert White said today that the results of last week's Southern California Burglary Conference in Pasadena may expedite a solution to a recent wave of Palm Springs jewelry thefts.

White, Sergeants Richard Harries and John Herrera and Detective Matt Calac attended the conference that featured discussions involving some of the Southland's top burglary investigators.

White declined to elaborate on the information secured at the conference but, he said, it may have a definite bearing in the solution of recent hotel burglaries here.

POP NO TEACHER IN SWIMMING POOL

By Sam Kuegan

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UPI) — Springfield College swimming coach Charles E. Silvia says Dad shouldn't give Junior his swimming lessons any more than he should be in charge of filling his teeth.

They are both jobs for an expert, says Silvia, a 45-year-old professor of physical education and a former president of the National Swimming Coaches Association.

IT'S HIS OPINION that intellect plays a major role in swimming instruction and that "the intellect cannot play this role unless the instructor is qualified and able to provide the student with the proper basic knowledge."

Silvia just doesn't think that parents can provide their children with such knowledge. He points out that many subscribe to the theory that the best way to teach swimming is to duck the child under water right at the start.

THE RESULT, SAYS Silvia, is that "all too frequently, the student's progress and adjustment to the aquatic environment is seriously retarded."

His own approach, he said, "is to provide each beginning swimmer with basic understanding" of the subject.

"All non-swimmers can be taught to swim more quickly and more completely when the instructor provides the student with the WHY of certain movements," says Silvia.

"THE RESULTS OF instruction that have stimulated the student's mind are much more gratifying to the student as well as to the instructor, when the intellect plays a major role."

Silvia, who directs a swimming school for children here during the summer, advocates the use of artificial supports in the water "to reduce apprehension and enable the student to practice conscious control of the hands and feet while in the water."

IT IS THE PRACTICE at his school to introduce teaching aids such as waterwings, the kickboard and swimfins in the first lesson. He says that with these, "the emotional involvement on the part of the student is reduced, and the role of the intellect is increased."

Silvia advises fathers that the chances of making Olympic swimmers out of their sons and daughters are pretty slim if they're not taught by a professional, explaining:

"Unless a parent is completely familiar with the proper execution of stroke techniques, he can establish in the mind of his child the incorrect techniques. Later, a professional swimming instructor will not be able to change the student."

Silvia sums it up this way: "No parent can be all things to a child."

EARL WILSON

Poston Made His Loot, Too!

NEW YORK—"Talk about all these TV guys making fortunes on quiz shows," Tom Poston said with a wag of his chin, "why a couple of weeks ago I had in my bank account almost 400 bucks..."

He looked at his checkbook. "Four hundred and EIGHTY bucks," he added, "correcting his story," as they say down at the D.A.'s office and also in Wash'n.

"Of course I've also got a baby and an apartment."

"And a motorcycle," I said.

"Nope, I sold that for junk."

Tom, starring in the hit comedy, "The Golden Fleece," and M.C.'ing a five-day-a-week NBC TV show, "Split Personality," was pointing out that actors seldom get as rich as quiz show producers and contestants—and they're always looking for work.

"Even when I was on Steve Allen's show I went looking for work every Monday," Tom explained at the Absinthe House where he definitely paid for lunch (I saw him and I sent my personal check over for the hors d'oeuvre I had so there'd be no charge of fixing the tab).

"Here I was... a trained, experienced, dedicated actor going on TV saying I couldn't remember my name. What kind of work was that for a grown man?"

When Steve took his TV show to Hollywood, he told Tom he could rejoin the cast at any time, once a week or once a year ("talk about security!"). Tom chose to stay here and be a dedicated even though broke actor, and he's glad he did because meanwhile:

"My singing voice has at last been recognized."

He's doing a duet with Ethel Merman on an NBC spec Nov. 22.

In congratulating Tom on his opportunity to establish himself as a singer, the director said: "This is the kind of a song you can just talk, anyway."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL

Gene Tierney has big offers for her autobiography, but her medics won't let her write it... There'll be a major cast change before the musical "Saratoga" reaches Broadway... Backstage gag at "Take Me Along": Jackie Gleason got mad—he found water in his water pitcher... Billy Rose and Mrs. Wm. Rhinelanders were wining at Sardi's after "The Highest Tree" opening.

Mitzi Gaynor formed a recording company, with songwriter Robert Allen... Aly Khan says he's given up other forms of gambling for bridge... Cesare Siepi of the Met Set and Tina Onassis of the Jet Set dated at Le Vouvray.

An Eighth Av. cafe owner says he's indignant at the salaries given college teachers, offered Charles Vag Doren $125 a week to manage his place... A famous band leader laid a Texas-sized egg in Texas—drew only 600 customers to a huge state fair show... Director Marty Ritt caught pneumonia in Italy, and actor Harry Guardino pinched it for him in "Jovanka."

Filmdom Mourns Victor McLaglen At Funeral Rite

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Victor McLaglen, whose early life was often more adventurous than his colorful film roles, yesterday was laid in his final resting place.

Film land celebrities, fans and the family of the beloved screen giant were among those present at solemn services in the Church of the Reconciliation at Forest Lawn in nearby Glendale.

Interment followed in the Columbarium of Everlasting Light. Actors John Wayne and Edmund Lowe and director John Ford were among 20 honorary pallbearers who accompanied the English-born actor's body.

McLaglen died of congestive heart failure Saturday at the age of 72. His widow, Margaret, and a son, television director Andrew McLaglen, were at his bedside when death came at his seaside Newport Beach, Calif., home.

Palm Springs, Hudson Bay-- Natural Tie-In Is Golf

Maybe golf has something to do with it, but Hudson's Bay Blended Scotch Whisky is rapidly becoming popular in Palm Springs, with many of the golf clubs—as well as retail liquor stores, restaurants and hotels—featuring Hudson's Bay.

Palm Springs is the Winter Golf Capital of the World, and Hudson's Bay officials relate that the Hudson's Bay name played a big part in how the originators of golf arrived at 18 holes.

The story goes as follows: "Apparently when golf originated in Scotland there were a number of individuals who got together to try to determine how many holes should be played and why. The best suggestion offered was by a man who always carried a bottle of Hudson's Bay 'Best Procurable' in his golf bag.

"He informed the group that he always had a drink (one and a half ounces) at the end of every hole, and that by the time he had finished 18 holes the bottle was empty and therefore there was no use in going on without Hudson's Bay 'Best Procurable'."

Hudson's Bay emphasizes the oldness of their company and the oldness of their fine Scotch whisties.

Fair Building Cost Reduced

The county fair board's proposed reduction of $10,106 in the $205,615 contract for construction of the new agricultural exhibit building on the fairgrounds in Indio was heartily approved by the Board of Supervisors this week. The reduced cost is $295,509.

Elimination of 14 evaporation coolers amounts to a cut of $4,165, substitution of acoustical tile for acoustical plaster $6,000. Other minor changes, some adding to the cost, and others reducing it result in the net reduction of $10,106.

PALM DESERT — Can you dance, sing or act, play an instrument? Or perhaps you have another talent?

If so, the Palm Desert Players welcome you. This season the theatrical group plans to stage a winter edition of the Palm Desert Follies, which is produced each summer.

Anyone interested in appearing in the follies is urged to contact Mrs. Ann Carpenter or Clay Stearns, director of a forthcoming play and Follies producer, Tom Cook, public relations director, said today.

He added the Follies would possibly be staged "around Christmas time."

Plans for the play, "Accent on Youth," were discussed at a meeting Monday night in the old post office building in Palm Desert. More than a dozen persons read for the part, Cook said.

RAMS PICKED OVER LIONS SUNDAY

Bears Favored Over 49ers in Key Game

By EARL WRIGHT, United Press International

The Chicago Bears are favored to tighten up the National Football League's Western Division race Sunday by defeating the San Francisco Forty-Niners at Chicago's Wrigley Field.

PANCHO GONZALES
Ready to Quit Tennis?

Gonzales Ready To Quit Tennis For New Fields

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Richard (Pancho) Gonzales, now 31 years of age, said today that after a decade of professional tennis he is beginning to think about leaving the game for other fields.

While the rest of tennis promoter Jack Kramer's troupe is touring Europe, champion Gonzales is enjoying himself at home in Southern California where he first won tennis fame and eventually turned pro under Kramer's banner.

For the past few years Kramer and Gonzales have not been the close friends and companions they were after the Mexican-American turned pro. There have been contract wrangles and even lawsuits or threats of legal actions.

"I guess I'm still under contract to Kramer," Gonzales said when contacted at the Los Angeles Tennis Club. "As of the moment we can't reach an agreement on certain terms and options in the contract."

"That leaves my tennis plans up in the air. Whether we will get together or not on terms remains to be seen. Right now it's up in the air."

Tudor Era 2 to 1 In Nine-Nation Race at Laurel

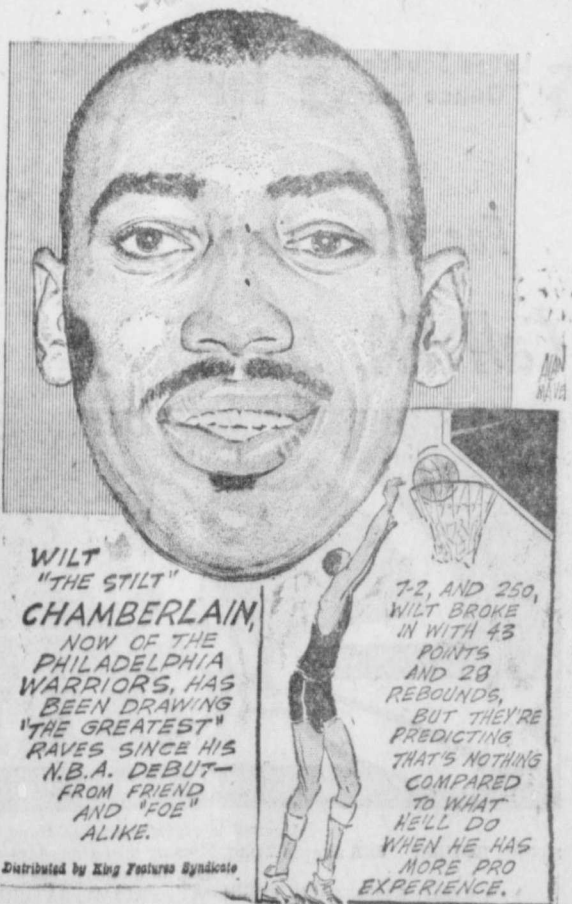

LAUREL, Md. (UPI)—Tudor Era, denied victory through a disqualification a year ago, seeks an unsullied triumph today in the eighth running of the $100,000 Washington, D.C. International.

Twelve thoroughbreds from nine countries will run in the global classic. Never before have that many nations had representatives in the "Olympics of Horse Racing" in any one year.

Russia has Garnier and Flang, France has Midnight Sun and Mi Carina, Venezuela has Pensilvania, England has Aggressor, New Zealand has Up and Coming, Mexico has Lea-B, Australia, has Vogel, Peru has Lightning, and the U.S. has Bald Eagle as well as Tudor Era.

Tudor Era looms as a 2 to 1 favorite for the mile and one-half race to be run over a rebuilt turf course.

Seniors to Compete in Anniversary Tourney

Big Field In Event Expected

Invitations have gone out and responses are coming in rapidly for the Fifth Annual November tournament of the Palm Springs Desert Senior Golf Association next week, November 17, 18 and 19.

It will be played, as usual on three local courses, 18 holes at O'Donnell Golf Club Tuesday, 18 at Tamarisk Country Club Wednesday and 18 at Thunderbird on Thursday to wind up the 54 holes of medal play.

JOHNNY DAWSON, defending champion who won the event last year, will be back to try for a repeat as will all of the other seniors who won in the various brackets and who gave Dawson, of Eldorado Country Club, keen competition.

B. F. Shearer, president, and all of his aides in the Desert Senior Golf Association, are going all out to make the fifth anniversary tournament a notable affair. Many special events are planned.

THE TOURNAMENT, limited to members of the association, is divided into five classes:

AA—75 and over.

A—70 to 74.

B—65 to 69.

C—60 to 64.

D—55 to 59.

The Grand Champion award, the Gene Moon Cup, will go to the golfer in any class who scores the lowest gross in the event.

TWO LOW GROSS and two low net awards will be presented in each class. Low gross and low net prizes also go to the winners in the President's Guest flight.

There will also be daily low gross prizes in each class and also awards for special events, planned each day.

The event will be set off at a cocktail party at the Committee of Twenty Five clubhouse at O'Donnell Club Monday night for members.

EACH DAY of the tournament, golfers will meet at noon for lunch and refreshments, Tuesday at the Committee of Twenty Five clubhouse at O'Donnell's, Wednesday at Tamarisk and Thursday at Thunderbird.

The tournament will close with a dinner and award of prizes at Thunderbird at 7 p.m. Thursday. New pairings will be made each morning of play.

D'Amato Decision Due in 2 Weeks

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York State Athletic Commission is expected to require at least two weeks for study of the transcript before giving a decision in the Cus D'Amato hearing, which ended Tuesday.

D'Amato, manager of former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, was a defendant against five misconduct charges during the three-day hearing.

Johnny Parsons In Ascot Race

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Johnny Parsons, winner of the 1950 Indianapolis 500-mile race, today became the third winner of the Memorial Day classic to enter a 100-lap USAC late model stock car race Sunday at Ascot Stadium.

Other Indianapolis winners in the race are this year's victor, Roger Ward, and last year's winner, Jimmy Bryan.

JACKIE BURKE, center, gets together with Milt Hicks, tournament chairman, left, and Eddie Sullivan, Indian Wells pro, after announcement yesterday that the Desert Classic scheduled to be played in February next year, will post a minimum of $100,000 in cash for the pros and a valuable array of prizes for the amateurs.

LA QUINTA COURSE TO OPEN SATURDAY

The desert area's eleventh championship golf course and Southern California's newest, built at a cost in excess of $500,000, will be opened Saturday at La Quinta Country Club with guests from all over the nation attending the opening ceremony.

Mayor Frank Bogert will be joined in the event by celebrities including Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Phil Harris, Robert Sterling, John Raitt and Randolph Scott.

MORE THAN 100 other guests are being flown in from New York, Washington, D.C., Chicago, Kansas City.

The new 18-hole championship course can be played a distance of 6,200 or 7,200 yards, depending whether the back or front tees are used.

THE COURSE WILL be run in conjunction with La Quinta Hotel.

PHILS SIGN YOUNGSTER

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The Philadelphia Phillies outbid five other major league clubs Tuesday in signing outfielder William Delessandro to a 1960 contract.

Wyatt Named as Coach of Week For LSU Defeat

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—The way he had it figured, national champion Louisiana State would give the hard-to-All-American Billy Cannon and send him slashing off a backfield if it ever needed a two-point conversion badly.

LSU sent Cannon "slashing, all right, but he was met almost head-on by guard Wayne Grubb and linebacker Charley Severance and stopped six inches short of victory.

That's why Bowden Wyatt of Tennessee is honored by United Press International today as college football's "Coach of the Week" in the wake of Tennessee's 14-13 triumph that snapped LSU's 19-game winning streak and tumbled the Tigers from the No. 1 spot in the national ratings.

It's most unusual for a coach to win this honor twice in one season, but that's what Wyatt has done. Earlier this year he had been named "Volunteer 'streak-buster' whipped Auburn, 3-0, to end Auburn's 24-game unbeaten streak.

Despite this latest surprise, Tennessee still stands fifth in the Southeastern Conference and probably has to score one more victory — over Mississippi — this Saturday to have a look-in at the post-season bowls. Mississippi is ranked seventh nationally and Tennessee 10th.

So another win will probably have to be another upset, but what's new about that?

LOCAL GOLFER RUNS OVER SELF

T. C. McMillan, local golfer and Bon Vivant, after patiently waiting for his realtor to show him the twenty gorgeous new homes in El Dorado Palms, decided to run over himself. Be sure and ask your realtor, or run over and see Kirk Kirkwood at the models.

Preview Nurses' Residence

Fifty-five members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Desert Hospital held their first meeting of the season Monday afternoon in the beautiful new nurses' residence which was recently completed. The nurses' residence is an Auxiliary project, and members had a preview showing at Monday's meeting.

Mrs. Charles Farrell, president of the auxiliary presided over the meeting and appointed Mrs. Arnold Runwell, chairman of the house committee.

Mrs. Harry Joe Brown, chairman of ways and means, told of her exciting plans for the fall season to aid the Auxiliary with the community service they are now performing.

Official dedication of the new Nurses' residence will take place on Sunday afternoon, November 29, when members of the Palm Springs City Council, the board of directors of Desert Hospital, members of the medical staff and the public will all be invited to attend an open house.

The residence which has been beautifully furnished will provide much needed living quarters for members of the nursing staff, a comfortable place for them to relax during their off-duty hours, a meeting place for special conferences called by the director of Nurses, Mrs. Charlotte Welles, as well as the Women's Auxiliary.

Among the many interesting and convenient facilities is an oversized living room with ample seating, lamps and television. Adjoining this room is a large area where tables for games and letter writing have been placed. There is a kitchen for snacks, laundry facilities and the building is completely cooled by refrigeration. There are seven bedrooms with connecting baths and a patio for relaxing and sunbathing. Landscaping completes the attractive building where many pleasant hours will be spent by the nursing staff of the hospital.

Golf World Publisher Here

Mrs. Bob Harlow, publisher of Golf World stayed at Gates of the Desert in Palm Desert while here, with members of her staff, to cover the Ryder Cup Series at Eldorado.

When cleaning a rug, carpet sweep or vacuum it first, then move furniture to one side of the room and clean that half. Then reverse the process. Work in two-foot square areas. Overlap each stroke, then criss-cross from left to right until the area appears clean. High traffic spots or badly soiled areas may need a second application.

NEWS From CADILLAC-OLDSMOBILE

By "Mac" MacDonald General Manager

"It is often very difficult for the average layman to determine the condition of a used car. Yet there are thousands of used cars sold every year that are in excellent condition with many miles of trouble-free driving ahead. A good 'rule-of-thumb' to be followed when purchasing a used car is to know your dealer... if you don't know used cars. Here at Plaza Motors we keep only those used car trade-ins that we believe will offer the purchaser the best value for his money. Many of these trade-ins were sold originally by us to local families, and the complete service record is available for the purchaser to inspect. Along with the sale of these cars goes the integrity and reputation of Plaza Motors which we value very highly. Here is an example of just one of the several fine used cars now available at our show room:

1938 Cadillac Convertible. Beautiful white with harmonious rich looking black and white all leather interior. This is a local car with only 19,000 actual miles. Fully equipped including air conditioning. Ask to see license number PHZ.625 at Plaza Motors.

Lauderdale) were in the crowd.

Among other gala "calypso"ites at the Palm Springs Ranch Club Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. John O. Johnson who hosted their annual party for his Prudential staff. Coming from Riverside were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bluemel (he's the areas district mgr.), Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jenkins, Lee Paul, Ray Reheau, Jim Myers, Joe Murvihill, Merrill Price.

El Mirador Resumes Those Popular Sunday Brunches

It is Sunday brunch time again at Hotel El Mirador. First of the popular informal get togethers took place Sunday with a good sized early season brunch crowd on hand for the fun and food.

The delightful gatherings, which were first begun seven years ago, feature impromptu entertainment in addition to the delectable brunch prepared by El Mirador Chef Gerhart Knaak. Master of ceremonies Tex Kidwell was at his best as he presented the impromptu show which featured the talents of Francoise and Vin Riley, who are currently at Howard Manor, and famed Hawaiian dancer-singer Tani Marsh.

Among the many in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan with their guests Mr. and Mrs. Norman Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sibbert and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morris.

Mrs. Dora Clark, whose daughter is well known Villager Mrs. Al Hunt, honored Mrs. Rose Livingston and Mrs. Catherine Carlson, who but recently returned to Palm Springs after summering in Europe. Completing the group was Mrs. Harry Clatworthy.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Beebe, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Arnold, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude McQuiston made up one of the no host gatherings.

Mrs. Franklyn MacCarthy had as her guests her grandsons Robert Heinz of Bel Air, Mark Hogan and his mother Mrs. Lorraine Hogan.

Make generous allowances for shrinkage if you plan to wash draperies. A fabric labeled "not to exceed two per cent residual shrinkage" should not shrink more than three-quarters of an inch per yard.

Diced, unpeeled fresh apples give ham salad an interesting flavor and texture.

With Mrs. Noble Banks were Dr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Foster.

Seed Mosaics Featured on Program

John Lenox, husband of sorority member Eleanor Lenox, presented a most unusual and exciting program to the Sigma Gamma Chapter Beta Sigma Phi at the meeting held at the Lenox home on Canon Drive. A graduate from the Chicago Institute of Art, Lenox is the originator of Seed mosaics, and demonstrated his technique in the art at the Chapter meeting.

Using a Masonite background, glue, and dozens of kinds of seed, he creates portraits and still lifes in many sized pictures and a surprising color range.

Besides decorating his own home, he has done several seed mosaics for other Palm Springs residents.

Members sent a long letter in which each wrote a message to Marta Scott who is in the Camp Pendleton Naval Hospital following surgery.

Members present were President Fayne Pritchett, Millie Herbert, Barbara Hillstrand, Amelia Irvine, Eleanor Noyes, Helen Goudry, Lucille Fostvedt, Marie Ford, Sally Givens.

Meeting for November 17th will be held at the home of Fayne Pritchett, 1325 E. Sunny Dunes Road.

Weekends Are Busy and Crowds Are Big at The Ranch Club

Weekends in Palm Springs continue to bring ever increasing crowds, making most places bulge at the seams.

Saturday night diners at the Ranch Club came from near and far and included TV star Jim Davis with Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Green and Mrs. Clyde Beatty of circus fame; actor and restaurateur Jack La Rue with Ann Jordan and artist Henry Clive.

At other tables were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wittinghill, the Harold Pittengers, M. E. Goldwyns, with Jack Payne of the Palm Desert Biltmore, who was hosting a party.

Other out-of-town residents included the Hal Greys, Joe Keplers, Jerry Shipkeys.

Sunday night diners included Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Swanson of Omaha, Nebraska, who are winter residents at Thunderbird and were celebrating their wedding anniversary; and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Carter who were entertaining the W. O. Jenkins from London, England. Bill Robinson of Los Angeles, frequent visitor to the desert, was down for the senior tennis matches at the Racquet Club and dropped by to see his long time friend Roy Bradley of the Ranch Club. Bill is off soon for Mexico to visit his close friend, Barbara Hutton in the million dollar Japanese Village which she recently finished building in Cuernavaca.

BIGGEST SUB JOINS U.S. FLEET

GROTON, Conn. (UP) — The USS Triton, the world's biggest and only nuclear-powered radar-picket submarine, was commissioned yesterday.

Vice Adm. Bernard L. Austin hailed the mammoth craft as a pioneer in coordinating operations of undersea and surface fighting ships.

TRITON, THE FIRST to be equipped with twin reactors, became an active arm of the Navy when the commissioning pennant was hoisted in exercises at the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp.

Austin said Triton "will be writing the book in pioneering in an operational area that has long stimulated the imagination of tacticians."

HE SAID THERE was no precedent for her job of combining submarines and surface craft into a coordinated fighting force.

"She will have the speed and endurance to search large areas without losing touch with the main body and... her nuclear engines removed dependence upon any

President's Jet Tour

No President of the United States ever made such an extensive tour of foreign nations as that planned a month hence by President Eisenhower.

Thanks to the advent of the jet age President Eisenhower is able to travel 20,000 miles and visit nine allied nations in less time than it would have taken most of our early day Presidents to make one ocean crossing.

As the first Chief Executive of our country to have such a speedy means of travel at his disposal, President Eisenhower is making important use of it in extending the new era of personalized diplomacy by national leaders in behalf of the United States.

Spurred on by the significant successes achieved in his recent flight to confer with NATO leaders in Europe, President Eisenhower has every reason to hope for similarly good results in discussions with the leaders of Mediterranean and Asiatic nations friendly to America and the Western world.

Inasmuch as Premier Khrushchev has been "dropping in" to chat with various of the Soviet satellite nations, it is both proper and important from a world diplomatic viewpoint that President Eisenhower pay similar official courtesy visits to heads of the free world entente of which we are the leading power.

Generally speaking, President Eisenhower is held in high esteem and respect by the leaders and peoples of all Allied nations. His personal appearance in India, Turkey, Italy and other co-operative countries cannot help but generate greater appreciation and support of American assistance and friendliness among the peoples visited.

Coming just prior to the meeting of the Western nations, the timing of the Presidential tour has the added advantage of increasing interest and attention to the Allied conference to the extent that it may be much more successful in reaching full unity and accord in its preparations for the eventual summit meeting with Russia.

All in all, it is truly a very important trip by our President.

Big Operation

WAKE ISLAND — Good causes prosper on Wake-like peace, like private enterprise. In the dunes on the beaches are the rusted debris of Japanese cannon and tanks. The forlorn hulk of a Jap freighter, Suwa Maru, broods in the sand. What a contrast with the sleek Japan Air Liner which sets down to refuel.

Near the parking places of the U.S. Air Force transports and tankers reposes the twisted propeller and smashed cowl of the last of the nine World War II Wildcats (Grumman F-4F's) which helped fight the classic battle under then Marine Major Jimmie Devereux. Not far off is the lonely Jap cemetery of the eventual losers.

BUT THE EVENTUAL winner here appears to be the peacefulness which gave the world's biggest ocean its name. The two giant corporations, Pan American World Airways and British Overseas Airlines Corporation, occupy the east side of the runway layout. Pan Am sells its ground services to BOAC in an entente of the titans of air travel.

On the other side of the concrete spreads (showing that even on three square miles of volcanic isolation, there is room for competition) are several smaller but successful enterprises. The Military Air Transport Services (MATS) ships both people and cargoes through this aerial coaling station. The big airlines growl because MATS carries military personnel and dependents who might otherwise buy commercial tickets or stay home.

BUT HERE IN THE Pacific 42 per cent of MATS passengers fly on contract carriers. This accounts for the cluster of small businesses (dear to every Congressman's heart) on the south shore, known as Taloa Village. Pocket-sized airlines called Transocean, Slick, National Overseas, Seven Seas, Twentieth Century and Flying Tiger drop in to fuel up at the pumps of the island's third private operator, the Midpac Oil Company, a country cousin of Standard Oil. The biggest operator out here is the smallest corporation. In addition to flying supplemental passenger and cargo schedules from as far away as New York, Transocean Airlines has a $2 million-a-year contract with MATS and the MATS charter lines to service the planes and feed the passengers.

TRANSOCEAN WAS founded in 1946 by some flyers from the old Air Transport Command of the Army. The prime mover was Orvis Nelson, who came from Salt Lake City but set up the firm's headquarters in Oakland, Calif. In those early postwar days Pan Am worked closely with the Armed Services on Wake Island, but in 1954 there was a spirited contest for the MATS contract.

Transocean, with a total of 18 passenger-cargo planes, beat out the much larger company. In 1960, with the expiration of a three-year renewal, the competition will renew—an approved-type American.

can scramble for revenue, but taking place over 4,000 miles from the American mainland.

WHILE THE official landlord of Wake is the Federal Aviation Agency, the air movement industry is pretty well dominated by a couple of young men, fishing companions in spare time. Their job is something like that of traffic expeditors of 20 to 25 military planes a day.

Richard James Collins of Hawaii, Transocean manager, runs a staff of some 400 persons. They include 107 aircraft maintenance men, 95 dining room workers, 85 billeting personnel, the rest traffic controllers, dispatchers and ground hostesses whose main job is to rock and watch servicemen's children while the travel-tired mothers get a breather. There is billeting for 270 passengers and 134 crew members.

AS COMPANY manager, Mr. Collins commands many more troops than his military counterpart, Air Force Capt. Howard L. Richard, whose home is Napapa, Calif. Capt. Richard has a troop complement of three officers and four enlisted men. Their sole job is to see that the U. S. Government gets its dollar's worth on this contract. Except for the come and go of planes, the periodic arrival of an oil tanker or a supply ship, nothing much happens on Wake these days. Peace has broken out in earnest. That's how everyone wants it.

LETTERS

Editor, The Desert Sun
This is to acknowledge and thank you for the wonderful cooperation and support we received from The Desert Sun and its staff on the dedication of our new police facility. The outstanding job done by reporter Fred Weigel in preparing a brochure, which has been widely applauded, is much appreciated. Without your unqualified support law enforcement would be seriously hampered in its efforts to carry out its obligation to the community. Your constant help is much appreciated by everyone and particularly at this time on the occasion of the accomplishment of our new police facility.
Kindest personal regards,
AUGUST G. KETTMANN,

The Dove Feels Like a Sitting Duck

STAN DELAPLANE:

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

Today we celebrate
The end of all war
But while doing so
We're having more and more.

Forty-one years ago today, November 11, 1918, there was held celebration up and down the land and in many foreign countries, too.

The war to end all wars had ended.

THERE WAS BRAVE talk that the world was now safe for democracy and that machinery would be set up to prevent any similar holocaust.

That was before they knew too much about communism, or if they did, paid no attention to it.

Everybody was happy. No more war.

BUT LOOK AT IT. Since November 11, 1918, wars have erupted all over the face of the globe. Sure, there was a period of peace during the giddy twenties.

But shooting wars became common, too many nations were trigger-happy.

And for the past decade or more a cold war has kept the world tense.

THE FLAGS are out today and many a Palm Springs man who slogged through mud and grime and blood 41 years ago, now wears pants, size 46, and puffs when he climbs two or three steps to his front porch.

But even if that "safe for democracy" theme didn't exactly pan out, he did a good job.

And there is actually no major war today.

So let's celebrate.

It's Veterans Day. Born Armistice Day to celebrate the end of World War I, it now is dedicated to the memory of those who served in all of our wars.

THE FOUNDATION is laid, the plumbing roughed in and the concrete base in place at the new Greyhound depot on North Indian Avenue.

And when the modern structure is completed, there won't be any more snide remarks by incoming passengers as they view the present facility and snort:

"Grand Central station!"

ALTHOUGH a dyed-in-the-wool railroad buff who will never lose his love for the singing rails, I am a great fan for Greyhound, too.

You get such excellent service and the drivers and ticket people take good care of you. Treat you as a guest, not a customer.

EVERY ONCE in a while I think of a new device or invention which is needed to make life a bit easier.

Now, there are vending machines for most all articles except perhaps, clothing or other such bulky articles.

You can buy cigarettes, pop, coffee, candy, sandwiches, almost anything like that by inserting the required change.

But supposing you don't have the change? And no change-making machine handy?

So that's my new invention. A vending machine which will honor credit cards.

Bugle Rag

"Would you rather be a colonel
"With an eagle on your shoulder,
"Or a private with a chicken on your knee?"

This is Veterans Day. I am a veteran but have not mentioned it since one of my teenage daughter's swains remarked vaguely:

"Oh, you mean Korea, sir?"

That was as far back as he recalled. And it was most discouraging, gaffers.

WELL, NO SIR, I do not mean Korea. I mean the Battle of the Vacant Lots. This was a noble battle and our casualties were heavy (I died three or four times myself).

At that time, this day — Veterans Day — was known as Armistice Day.

Parades went marching down the street to the tune of "Over There." It had been a musical war and the bands never lacked for stirring, bugle-call music.

AFTER THE PARADE, we marched ourselves sternly over to a lot next door, that was open. We dug trenches and had a glorious battle.

(All our mothers hung out the windows and hollered: "If you're going to play in the dirt, you come right in here and change those good pants!")

Just as I was giving the order to charge too.

"GOOD LUCK, MEN," we said sentimentally. "Only a few of us will see the sun rise tomorrow. But" — and we brushed away a tear — "but the Marne must be defended!"

Then we charged and died like heroes.

Then we went home and changed our pants.

As I say, it was a most musical war. And many a sentimental evening we stood around the campfire (we roasted potatoes in it) — and sang.

"WHEN YANKEE Doodle Learns to Parlez Vous Français." That was a good one.

"Hello, Central, Give Me No Man's land." Very throat-catching.

"HowYa Gonna Keep 'em Down on the Farm, After They've Seen Parade?" Masculine and daring.

"Oh, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning." Gay and debonair for men about to die.

"THEY'LL BE MIGHTY PROUD in Dixie of Their Old Black Joe." Comedy relief.

"When We Wind Up the Watch on the Rhine." Triumph and romance blended.

Our changes had not changed from twentiers to woofers at that time. But we gave it everything we had. And after a day of battle and a night of song, we were so wrung with emotion we could hardly bear it.

THE NEXT WAR could not compare, musically speaking. (Personally, I think all future wars should be fought only with music. Irving Berlin should be Chief of Staff immediately.)

It was not comparable at all. Bugles had been cast aside along with cavalry sabers. We had a choice of the Mosquito Network or Tokyo Rose. Radio Tokyo was scratchy. And the Army radio was manned by an announcer who was practicing to get back on the soap commercials.

"Take your Aieeeee! It's GOOD for you!"

YOU WOULD HAVE thought he was getting extra pay for it. It turned out lemon-yellow and, when you quit taking it, the malaria bugged you anyway. He didn't mention that.

The only good songs were contributed by the Australians and English: "Waltzing Matilda," "Bless 'Em All," "I've Got Sixpence." We even had to go to the Germans for "Lili Marlene."

As for Korea, it was a musical disaster. An R-and-R captain tried to fill me in, using a catgut mandolin. And baby-san, it was enough to make you make a separate peace.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Wendy Not Kidding

HOLLYWOOD — Wendy Hiller wasn't kidding when she said she would return to Hollywood matter of fact, right this minute. She's busy packing her minks, sables and four-carat wedding ring off on a "round-the-world honeymoon cruise with her husband on his yacht."

She's getting $200,000 for playing Joan Collins' mother (British star Jack Hawkins is the father) in Jerry Wald's "Sons and Lovers" and another $20,000 (plus residuals) for starring in "Graduation Class" on the Hitchcock Presents TV show.

SHE GOT IT because of Wald's desperation: the producer had already signed Vivien Leigh for the part and was ready to roll the picture but couldn't spring Vivien from her London stage hit, "Look After Lulu" — and Jerry was sure he could get Vivien because this Noel Coward comedy was a flop on Broadway. How explain it's a London smash except to shrug. "That's show business!"

Wald is also starting to cast "High Heels," the picture Howard Hughes wouldn't let him make at RKO. This 20th-Fox film about the taxi dancers of the Roaring '20s (as in "Ten cents a dance, that's what they pay me, gosh, how they weigh me down!") will have Tuesday West as the three top taxi-foolies. Don Burnett, of MGM-TV's ill-fated Northwest Passage series, is screenwriting for the male lead.

SO YOU THINK nine-year-old Evelyn ("Eloise") Rudie's dramatic flight from Hollywood to Washington "to get Mamie Eisenhower's advice on my career" wasn't a publicity stunt. Think again. Evelyn's publicity advisers Helene Heigh and Bill Dodge, are also press agents for last month's Page One girl, Beverly Aadland.

Mort Sahl opened at the Crescendo. Nick Adams sent "The King of the Sick Comics" a get-well card.

Columbia Pictures is lining up a flock of big names for "carnegie bits" in "Pepe," starring Mexico's top star, Cantinflas, same as the fast appearances by everyone from Marlene Dietrich to Frank Sinatra in "Around the World in 80 Days." First guest star signed is Debbie Reynolds. This is her first picture for Columbia.

THE STUDIO'S top stockholder is Joan Cohn, just divorced from Harry Karl, Debbie, according to her intimates, will be the next Mrs. Karl. I asked Joan what she thought about it. She said, "I think it's wonderful. She's a fine actress, a charming person, and I am all in favor of her being in this picture or any other Columbia picture because she is also a big boxoffice star!"

Cinderella Helps Cinderella: Hillevi Rombin, Miss Universe of 1955 and now Mrs. G. David Schine, played Cupid and introduced 27-year-old Marta Newman to a wealthy 45-year-old guest at the Hotel Ambassador. Marta has been a publicity girl for the past three years for the hotel, which is owned by Schine.

BUT SHE JUST married the Schines' multi-millionaire friend and is quitting the business of making headlines for others — matter of fact, right this minute Marta is busy packing her minks, sables and four-carat wedding ring off on a "round-the-world honeymoon cruise with her husband on his yacht."

Bob Hope explained why Bing Crosby couldn't attend a golf tournament in Palm Desert: "He has a date in Los Angeles to give Charlie Coburn a pep talk."

CHANNEL CHATTER — Restaurateur Mike Romanoff signed for the role of a restaurateur in one of Fox-TV's Five Fingers segments. In between takes he spends as much time as he can in the office of Fox scribes Luther Davis, who is writing the screenplay for Mike's own life story, "Instant Prince." I asked him how it feels to be so busy. Sighed Citizen Romanoff, "Terribly fatiguing, old chap, running from IS to WAS!"

Israeli eye-fey Ziva Rodann signed to play a poverty-stricken Hawaiian seductress who's down to her last muu-muu in one segment of Have Gun—Will Travel.

Columbia Pictures purloined an "unknown" young actor named Richard Gering from a daytime CBS soap opera to star as one of Sandra Dee's Beachnik beaux in "Gidget Goes Hawaiian."

COINCIDENCE — 12 years ago Joel McCrea starred in a movie called "Ramrod." This week his son, Jody McCrea, is acting in his best TV assignment to date, a segment for Five Fingers called "Operation Ramrod."

During a scene for Stanley Kramer's film version of "Inherit the Wind," in which Spencer Tracy is interrogating Jimmy Boyd on the witnessing his lines. Finally when the dialogue director tried to prompt Jimmy, director Kramer butted in with: "This isn't television—so WE don't give the answers!"

WE'VE BEEN having a hot spell here in Hollywood so the air-conditioning systems on most of the soundstages have been turned up to "Maximum." And Ivan Volkman, a Kramer aide who is always aware of the value of a publicity plug, puts it this way when he wants the noisy machines doused so that they won't be picked up on the "Inherit the Wind" soundtrack: "Please, somebody, inhibit the wind!"

COLLIER YOUNG, who produces the One Step Beyond series, lunched at Metro with an old friend from across the pond, the Marquis of Londonderry. The visiting fireman regaled Young throughout the luncheon with stories about the centuries-old ghost that haunts his ancestral home. And Young, ever one to combine business with pleasure, right then and there bought the story from the Marquis as a segment for his "supernatural" series!

What better signoff for today's column than "fill-in" from my pal Joe E. Lewis: "I always drink real booze in my act because I don't want the customers to get any idea my shows are rigged!"

Remember When...

Indianoya, one of the most unique stores in California, was opened in Palm Springs this week.

For Christmas

Kids Offered Real Live Burro

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Hey, kids, how'd you like a burro for Christmas, a real live donkey all your own to ride and play with?

Aside to parents: This is on the level. Legit, so to speak.

All you have to do is write a letter to a television producer telling him why you want a burro for a pet. The best written letter will win you the burro complete with saddle and bridle and free transportation to your home town.

ASIDE TO PARENTS: Now don't bet sore. Burros are gentle little things and no more trouble to take care of than . . . say, a truckload of alligators.

Kids, the man you write to is Don Feddersen, who puts on "The Millionaire" TV shows. Just write to him in Hollywood.

In case you don't know what a burro is, let me explain. This particular burro is named "Clara." She stands about four feet high and is very calm and friendly. She has long ears and likes to eat hay.

ASIDE TO YOU-know-who: Clara dispatches approximately one bale of hay every two weeks, at about $5 per bale.

You may ask, "Why is Mr. Feddersen giving away a burro?" All well and good. Even Mr. Feddersen isn't too sure. He recently completed a segment of his program which called for a prospect and a burro. When the show was over the actor went on to other roles, but the burro just sort of hung around, unemployed.

Mr. Feddersen could have sold Clara, but he'd grown kinda fond of the little donkey. He decided it would be best to give her away to some boy or girl.

YOU HAVE TO BE younger than 12 years old to enter the contest, and you must have written permission of your parents to win the burro.

Kids, it isn't necessary to tear off a box top or save coupons, and you must have written permission of your parents to win the burro.

P.S. Parents! This is a grand opportunity to even the score with unpleasant neighbors. Clara, like all burros, loves to bray all night.

A LUNAR EXPEDITION under the command of Col. Edward McCauley is marooned when a temblor topples their space ship, on the CBS Television Network's "Men Into Space" Wednesday, Nov. 11 (8:30-9 p.m., pst). Their plight is complicated by the failure of their radio transmitter, which makes it impossible to guide a rescue ship to their location. William Lundigan, above, stars as Colonel McCauley. Arthur Franz and Denver Pyle play members of the stranded astronautical team.

POPULATION HIKE IN INDIA SUBJECT

"The Population Explosion," a close and sobering look at the grave consequences of the abnormally high current rate of growth of the world's population, which may double in the next 30 years, will be presented as the second program in the "CBS Reports" series on the CBS Television Network Wednesday, Nov. 11 (10-11 p.m., pst), announced today by Fred W. Friendly, executive producer of the series.

India, where the problems created by intense population pressures are most acute now and are rapidly becoming critical, is the locale for most of the hour-long program, reported by CBS News Correspondent Howard K. Smith.

PRIME MINISTER Jawaharlal Nehru will be interviewed on the program on the degree of success his government is achieving in its attempt to combat the swiftly climbing population figures. The program will take viewers to New Delhi and Old Delhi, to Bombay, and to Najafgarh, the center of complex agricultural villages 30 miles north of New Delhi.

Crux of the problem to be probed on "CBS Reports" is the fact that the world's population is increasing each year by some 49,000,000 people — more than the population of England or France. Earth's total population, which was an estimated 100,000,000 at the time of Christ, has grown to more than two and a half billion. Students of population compute that if the rate of growth continues unchecked, Earth will be supporting a teeming five billion people by 1990, and, possibly, six billion by the year 2000.

CURRENTLY, A quarter of the world's population is without proper shelter and two out of three human beings know hunger daily. In India, classic example of the

Dear Abby... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: You recently advised a G.I. who had fallen in love with a Japanese woman while in Japan that if he wanted an American woman to bathe and dress him he should get himself admitted to an old folks home.

Like all American women, Abby, you missed the point. American men do not fall in love with Japanese women because they make such excellent servants. A Japanese waitress in Ginza has more fresh affection in her voice than some American men hear all their lives in the U.S.A.

It is easy to understand why a man would prefer a wife who would rather help her husband wash his back than drive him out to a PTA meeting. How are you going to lick such an offer?

The saddest sight in all Japan is that of an American woman who has caught sight for the first time of her competition.

Harold Hughes (Portland Oregon staff writer.)

DEAR ABBY: May I respectfully advise you that when it comes to the subject of comparing American women to Japanese women you do not know what you are talking about.

As an American man who has spent many years in Japan I can testify that I have never seen a Japanese woman elbow her way into an elevator nor have I ever heard a Japanese woman raise her voice to her husband in public.

They are not all out of the rice paddies, either. Eighty per cent of all High School graduates in Japan go on to college. You American women would do well to pattern your behavior after your Japanese cousins.

ONE WHO KNOWS
DEAR ABBY: I lived as a bachelor for many years in Tokyo and never found it difficult to resist the "charms" of the Japanese women. To be perfectly frank, their idiotic conversation would drive a normal man to drink.

I observed a handful of G.I.'s marrying Japanese girls, but 99 per cent of these misfits would have had a tough time getting an American girl of any age to marry them.

Sincerely,
"COULD WRITE A BOOK"
